PRACTICE AND EXPERIENCE

Andreas has extensive experience ranging from both competition law and transactions but is specialised in commercial dispute resolution and specifically international arbitration. He currently represents parties in national and international arbitrations, related litigation as well as enforcement cases.

Andreas has acted as counsel for Swedish and foreign clients in arbitrations under, for example, the SCC and the ICC rules, as well as in ad-hoc proceedings. Andreas has further acted as counsel before domestic courts and courts of appeal, including the Supreme Court. Andreas' dispute resolution experience encompasses, inter alia, the fields of general commercial law, international sales, post M&A, international investment law, complex disputes in the financial sector, construction and energy. Further, Andreas has acted several times as counsel for states in complex setting aside proceedings regarding investments made under the Energy Charter Treaty (ECT).

Andreas is acts as board member of Young Arbitrators Sweden (YAS), which organises several events each year in the Swedish arbitration community.
