Ina's practice focuses on dispute resolution. She advises clients on various commercial disputes and advocates cases before arbitral tribunals and state courts. As part of the firm's employment law team, Ina also represents clients in all stages of employment related disputes. In addition to her experience on a variety of contractual disputes, she specialises in post-M&A and company law related cases, especially share redemptions. She also advises on cases with regulatory aspects, such as compliance related questions and administrative proceedings. Ina's business-minded approach to legal questions makes cooperation with her easy and straight-forward.

In addition to her years at Hannes Snellman, Ina has trained on the bench at the District Court of Länsi-Uusimaa.
