Senni provides advice on financial services regulation, with a special interest in investment services. She advises both domestic and overseas banks, investment firms, fund managers, and other financial markets participants on a wide range of issues within the financial services sector. Senni also assists with banking and finance transactions, such as securitisations. In addition to finance-related matters, she provides advice on travel regulation.

Senni joined Hannes Snellman as a trainee in May 2017 and was appointed as an associate in January 2018. In addition to studying at the University of Turku, she has spent a semester at Charles University in Prague.
